Once your application has been submitted, you will not be able to return to the application to edit it.
- ◁ You will be asked to complete the following information:
 - Global Challenges Award Selection:
 - ◁ Select the specific Global Challenges Teaching Award you are

- As this is a teaching-focussed award, consider

- < Details of how the department will support the applicant in delivering a virtual exchange course.
- < How the award aligns with the department's broader goals and objectives.
- < Any additional information

- Articulate how the award will enhance your teaching practices and improve student outcomes.

- ◁ Have you secured support from International Office?
 - Ensure that you have included letters of support from the appropriate individuals to demonstrate institutional backing for your application.

Important Note: Being able to answer “yes” to all of the above questions does not guarantee an invitation to an interview. While we anticipate a high volume of excellent applications, there are only eight total awards available. As a result, we may not be able to interview every competitive applicant.

Thank you for your interest in our Global Challenges Teaching Awards and best of luck with your application!
